London - Spring Break

Service Learning Communication Course - Undergraduate & Graduate - Open to all majors!

Program Overview

Communication in Organizations (COMM 4020) is a 3 credit hour class. Students will take the course on campus from January until May. This program combines two high impact practices: Service Learning and Study Abroad. Students will work with nonprofit organizations in Clarksville during the spring semester, and with the same nonprofit organizations during their trip to London over Spring Break. In London, the group will stay in a hotel that includes full English breakfast, free Wi-Fi, and easy access to public transportation. During their time abroad, students will also visit some of the most exciting places in London!

Students will have a showcase at the end of the semester to highlight the class.
